About me

I'm a Kotlin Multiplatform (android, iOS) developer based in India. I have worked as a lead developer at a mounty.co and internationalschooling full time. In terms of architecture, I have worked on a various different architecture. I spent my leisure hours writing articles. I love to learn and explore new areas. I can develop both Android and iOS apps and can make logical parts by common shared code. I have also decent experience in Golang and can write backend code.
